

GUIDELINES FOR BUSINESS NAME APPLICATION

1. A business name represents a style or topic that is used to recognize the identity of the business carried out.
2. A business name can be categorised into two (2) types :
 - a. Personal Name as stated in the identity card is not required to apply for approval of the business name.
Example: Ruslan bin Mohamed, Siow Ah Thai or, Ramasamy a/l Mutusamy.
 - b. Trade Name is the name of the proposed business and must obtain prior approval from the Registrar of Business at Suruhanjaya Syarikat Malaysia.
Example: Kedai Dobi Mewah, Lucky Star Catering, or ABS Unggul Enterprise.
3. Business name should not be too long and not more than fifty (50) characters including spaces between words.
4. Business name should not be too general.
Example: Suria, Megah, Asriza, XYZ
5. Business name registered must be in accordance with the type of business.
6. Besides obtaining approval from SSM for the use of the words Nurseries, Care Centre, Kindergarten, Tuition Centres, Colleges and Schools as part of business name must obtain the approval of business names, business owners must also obtain written permission from other relevant agencies prior to registering the business.
7. The use of numbers, sign and symbols is allowed as part of a business name and must be appropriate to the use of the business name.
Example: D&T Services , A.B.C Trading, Kupu-Kupu Design, Focus Re-Engineering, Dato' Afiq Success Construction, 123 Maju Enterprise
8. Pursuant to section 22(1) and 341 Companies Act 1965, the Minister directs the Registrar of Companies not to accept for registration any name of a company or a foreign company that is a name or a name of kind mentioned in the Schedule unless prior approval of the Minister has been obtained. Any person who, being responsible for a business, uses any undesirable name without the consent of the Minister to register the business commits an offence.
9. The business name registered cannot be altered or changed once the business is registered.
10. Rule 17 Registration of Business Rules 1957, the Registrar may refuse to register any business or to register any particular in respect of any business, if in his opinion the business is unlawful by reason of any provision of any written law relating to companies or societies or any other written law or may in such circumstances register such business, or may register such particular, provisionally and subject to it being established to his satisfaction that such business is lawful.
